

NORTH LEE COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION/RENEWAL

Annual membership in the North Lee County Historical Society assists in funding operational expenses for the Depot Complex Historic Center, Brush College, Old Lee County Jail and with future operations and projects. The NLCHS is dedicated to serving the communities in North Lee County, Iowa. Your support of the society's important work is greatly appreciated and will assist in building appreciation for our past and shared heritage.

Membership in the NLCHS entitles you a free admission to the above supported facilities. Family, Individual and Business memberships are for a period of one year beginning on May 1 of each year. Free will donations can be applied to any area of museum operations or general fund if not specified.
